The diagram illustrates a user interface with two distinct sections, each enclosed in a rectangular frame. The top section, labeled 31, features the text "COPY DEVICE LIST" on the left. To its right are two adjacent buttons labeled "ADD" and "REMOVE". Below these elements is a large, empty rectangular box. The bottom section, labeled 32, mirrors this layout with the text "REMOVAL DEVICE LIST" on the left, followed by "ADD" and "REMOVE" buttons, and a large empty rectangular box below them. A horizontal line separates the two sections. The labels 31 and 32 are positioned to the right of their respective sections, with a wavy line pointing to the right-hand border of each section's frame.
